THINK

OUTSIDE

THE TRIFOLD.

What's your vision?

A capabilities brochure with a die-cut, an embossed logo, custom colors, and varnish?

A direct-mail postcard campaign using variable printing?

Business cards, perfectly in brand . . . that your 16,000 employees can order online?

Oregon can do it all.

Whatever your vision, we'll help execute it perfectly. Our top-of-the-line digital and offset presses handle single through full-color projects with impeccable quality, faster than you can say spot varnish.

A PROFESSIONAL TEAM

Our machines are backed by a team that knows their stuff. Technicians who can ferret out any flaw in your file, from a misaligned bleed to a missing image. Press operators who match your colors perfectly . . . and spot typos in your text. And fulfillment staff who deliver your piece where you want it, when you want it.

Trust your vision to someone who cares. Because if you can dream it . . . we can print it.

THAT KNOWS THEIR STUFF.

UP

INK IT

A NOTCH

When you're ready to take your design to print, who do you want to partner with?

A small copy shop may not have the capabilities you need. And a large printing house may break your budget.

Instead, partner with a trusted expert at Oregon.

Someone who knows you and your business, your standards and expectations. Someone who “gets” your vision and is just as excited about it as you are. Someone who comes through when it really matters . . . when you need just the right color . . . and you needed it yesterday.

At Oregon, we're not just about putting ink on paper. We're about bringing your vision to life.
